Greatest of Care

Should be Exercised With The Eyes.

Many cases have come to my notice where people have been duped by men here today and somewhere else tomorrow, which fact leads me to advise all persons needing attention given to their eyes to submit their cases to the resident Eye Specialist, who is known to all and who is here all the time to look after all his cases.

Very Respectfully,

KING-SAUNDERS MURDER CASE.

Taking of Testimony Finished and Argument Begun.

The examination of witnesses in the King murder trial was resumed at the opening of Federal court this morning and the entire morning session consumed in the taking of evidence. The evidence was of course important, but little interest has been manifested today. The crowd at the court house has been unusually small. One of the most important witnesses this morning was a brother of Saunders, the murdered man, who testified as to the feeling between King and Saunders before and after the destruction of the latter's still by a party of revenue officers led by King, and also as to the bullet holes and bruises on Saunders' body and the holes in his clothes after the killing. Twelve witnesses were examined at the morning session and at one o'clock Mr. Glenn stated that the State had a few other matters to consider, but that he preferred to wait until the opening of court this afternoon. Court adjourned for dinner.

The murderer sits in the bar with an unconcerned look on his countenance as though he were confident of acquittal.

The afternoon session opened at 3 o'clock and after the transaction of a small amount of other business, Reuben D. Reid opened the argument for the prosecution. He will be followed by either Mr. Settle or Mr. Watson who will plead for the defendant. R. B. Glenn speaks third.

A JAILER IN JAIL.

Surry's Criminal Keeper Spends the Night a Prisoner—He Has Gone.

M. H. Norman, jailer at Dobson, Surry county, was arrested by Officer Jordan yesterday afternoon. The gentleman who has been making the prisoners in Surry jail walk a chalk line was here attending Federal court and after rubber-necking at the tops of Greensboro's high buildings until the novelty of their attitude wore off, proceeded to get drunk. He was well tanked and was wielding a six-shooter preparatory to dispatching a negro man who did not act to suit him, when the officer came up and pulled the belligerent in.

When he had sobered up and began to realize "where he was at" he was taken before "Squire Eekle who bound him over to court in $500 bond. He was unable to find a bondsman yesterday afternoon and much to the joy of the prisoners from Surry, spent the night in jail.

He gave bond this morning and immediately shook the dust of this police-infested city from his feet. As he sat in the car before the train pulled out one could almost see him thinking "Home, Sweet Home."

Effect of Alcohol on Human System.

Dr. Tracy's medical knowledge came to the front last night at the academy of music as he clearly and conclusively proved that alcohol is an irritant and not a food. That the alcohol taken into the stomach holds the decayed tissue and never aids digestion but always stops it. The effects of beer upon the liver and kidneys are shown from post-mortem pictures.

Tonight the second logical lecture of the course will be delivered upon the subject, Ten Nights in a Barroom. This lecture will be illustrated throughout by transmission scenes and songs illustrated. A silver offering.

The Best Of Slot Machines.

Grisson & Pordham and Howard Gardner have secured crowd-drawing attractions at their respective stores—one at each. Chewing gum slot machines are what will cause the children to congregate at those stores until the novelty of the thing wears off. The machine has a show case in which stands a polite and courteous yellow kid, who, when a penny is dropped in the slot, makes a bow peculiarly his own. He then turns slowly, touches a rod and the gum drops into the customer's hand. And last but not least, when the kid has waited upon a customer he politely bows again and throws a parting kiss. It is the best work to which the smart and smiling kid has yet been assigned.

Brown's Beauties.

Under this heading we refer to the three rooms connected with Brown's furniture department, upstairs, parlor, dining and sleeping rooms. They were arranged by Mr. Workman who is in charge of this department, and are beautiful, showing excellent and artistic taste. AWFUL FIRE AT NEW YORK

Millionaire Andrews And Family Burned To Death.

THIRTEEN LOSE THEIR LIVES.

Flames Skipped Two Blocks, Catching Another House—One Dead, Several Others Injured.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, April 7.—Fire began early this morning in the mansion of Wallace C. Andrews, the millionaire president of the New York Steam Heating Company, on East Sixty-seventh street. The flames spread so rapidly that the inmates were cut off in the upper stories. They were awakened from sleep but were unable to reach the street. The entire family of Andrews and also the family of his son-in-law, Gamaliel St. John, perished. Mr. St. John went to Wilmington, Del., yesterday and escaped.

The dead are: Wallace C. Andrews and wife; Mrs. George St. John, daughter; Orson St. John, Wallace St. John and Frederick St. John, children; Nellie Selden, Mary Flanagan, Eva Patterson, Kate Downing, Marie Ross, Annie Neary and Jennie Burns, servants; the laundress died at the hospital. The bodies of Mrs. St. John and children have been identified, and six others found, two of which are believed to be Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, and the rest servants. Alice White, the cook, is in the hospital. Her condition is critical from the shock. The coroner announced this morning that thirteen persons lost their lives in the fire.

The flames skipped two blocks, catching the residence of Al. Adams, a sportsman, on Sixty-ninth street. A number of the inmates jumped from the windows. Mrs. Adams injured her back and is suffering from the shock; Nellie Quinn, a servant, jumped from the fourth floor to extension and was severely bruised; Mrs. Mary Langran, housekeeper, has died in the hospital from the shock. Four others were injured.

LATER REPORT.

New York, April 7.—The number of dead resulting from the Andrews mansion fire is only twelve.

Changes of Residence.

Mr. James A. Hodgins, cashier of the People's Savings Bank, has purchased the residence known as the Dr. Tate place, on Ashboro street, and will move his family there at an early date. Mrs. Hawkins, who now occupies the place, will, it is understood, move into the handsome Vernon place, just across the street, where she will continue to conduct her excellent boarding house.

Mr. J. E. Scott will probably occupy the residence now occupied by Mrs. Hodgins.

The family of Mr. A. D. Simpson yesterday removed from the flat on West Sycamore street into one of the handsome and commodious residences on Summit avenue.

Funeral of Austin Chandler.

The funeral of Austin Chandler, who died yesterday, was preached at the home, on Guilford avenue at 4 o'clock this afternoon, by Rev. L. Johnson. After the funeral services the remains were taken to their last resting place in Greene Hill cemetery.

Mr. Chandler was about 22 years old and a member of Greensboro Council, No. 13, Jr. O. A. M. He was a member of Washington Street Baptist church and a young man of noble, Christian character. His many friends deeply sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

We wish to say that the item in yesterday's news concerning the High Point opera house was not intended to cast any reflections on A. V. Sapp, the manager, but it was meant for the one who had the house in charge while Mr. Sapp had gone north.

Rev. Egbert Smith, D. D., of Greensboro, will preach the annual sermon at the commencement of the High Point graded school, Sunday, May 7, at 11 o'clock. Dr. Smith is a fine preacher, and his many friends will be glad to know that he is coming.

An All Star Aggregation.

One of the nearest lines of Oxford ties ever shown in Greensboro is now offered at Shrier's. Ordinarily it is difficult to procure a comfortable shoe under $1.50 or $2.00 as they are usually stiff and unyielding to the foot. Such is not the case with our $1.25 vici kid Oxford ties in black and colors made over the popular coin toe. These shoes are soft and flexible and guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. THE DREYFUS MATTER.

The Figaro Publishes More Of The Testimony.

GENERAL ROGET DEFENDED

Du Clam And Esterhazy And Applied Offensive Names To Magistrate Bartulus.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Paris, April 7.—The Figaro publishes more of the Dreyfus case testimony today. Gen. Roget began the testimony by demanding that the court read the testimony of Judge Bartulus. The court complied. Roget then remarked that the allegations reflected more credit upon the imagination than the truthfulness of the magistrate. Roget defended Du Clam and Esterhazy, and attacked Col. Henry, applying offensive names to Bartulus.

Gen Hastings Declined.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 7.—General Russell Hastings has declined President McKinley's appointment as Director of the Bureau of American Republics. The executive committee bureau met this morning and accepted the declination and reinstated Frederick Emory as temporary director.

Free Issue of Clothing.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 7.—According to the ruling of the Secretary of War, whenever articles of clothing belonging to enlisted men have been destroyed upon recommendation of the medical officer to prevent contagion, a gratuitous issue of such articles will be made.

Twenty-first Infantry to Sail.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 7.—The quarter-master general's department has received word that the Twenty-first Infantry will sail early next week on the transport Hancock for the Philippines. Extensive repairs being made on the Hancock has delayed her departure.

An Excellent Young Man Gone.

Mr. Austin Chandler died at the home of his father yesterday afternoon at three o'clock, in his 22nd year.

In his death the city has lost one of its purest and best young men. He was as modest, quiet, unassuming and gentle as a woman. Only those who knew him intimately could appreciate his true worth. Years ago he professed religion and joined the Washington street Baptist Church. From the day of his connection with the church until his recent illness, he was a faithful attendant. As assistant secretary of the Sunday school and as usher of the church, he performed his duties with conscientious faithfulness. During his suffering his Christ-like spirit shone out as never before. Through all the months of suffering not a murmur was heard to escape his lips. When a loving mother expressed her pain at seeing him suffer so much he said, "Yes but I mustn't complain, Jesus suffered and died for me."

To his pastor who was with him a short time before his death he said that he had no fear of death and while he felt that he hadn't done much for his Saviour, he had tried to serve him as best he could, and now he was trusting him for salvation. The end came peacefully, without a struggle his gentle spirit took its flight to the "realms of endless day."

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Pastor.

Nicholas Nickleby.

On Monday night at the Normal and Industrial College, Prof. Livingston Barber, who holds the chair of elocution and oratory in Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., will give a dramatization of Dickens' charming novel, "Nicholas Nickleby."

Prof. Barber is an impersonator of rare ability, and his versatile changes from one character to another, as the story proceeds, is a little short of marvelous, portraying as he does with singular vividness the widely different characteristics of Nicholas, Smike, Wackford Squires, Madeline Bray and the other varied persons of the story.

Prof. Barber is not a stranger to Greensboro, having appeared at the Normal College a year ago, at which time he delighted his audience with David Copperfield. The entertainment committee of the college is fortunate in securing a return engagement of this gifted impersonator.

Prices will be within the reach of all; 35c general admission, and no reserved seats. The proceeds will go to the fund for erecting the students building at the college.

Hacks will run from the court house at 7:20 and 7:50 p. m., the entertainment to begin at 8:15.

You can find a very full line of infants and children's sandals, slippers and Oxfords in black and various shades of tan and russet at Thacker & Brookmann's.

LIFE TAKEN TO PROTECT LIFE.

Remarkable Homicide in Fayetteville Market Square.

Fayetteville, April 6.—A remarkable homicide took place in Market Square this afternoon. A colored man resembling a Robeson county Croatan, entered the Fayetteville drug store and gave much trouble there by lawless conduct. Mr. Stancill, in charge of the store, called on City Marshal Flowers to remove the rowdy. Mr. Flowers approached the man outside the front door, and put his hand on his shoulder, when the stranger drew a bowie knife and stabbed the marshal in the arm. Flowers stepped back to escape the knife, his antagonist still advancing, when the marshal drew a revolver and fired twice, then striking the desperado on the head. The marshal still gave back along the board walk, his adversary continually striving to reach him in spite of repeated shots until the pavement of the market house was reached, when the man was shot and killed by Officer J. H. Benton.

The coroner's inquest in the town hall tonight showed the body made a ghastly scene. The testimony of Dr. J. W. McNair, Mr. D. T. Oates and others indicated marvelous coolness on the part of the man, who advanced steadily against the mouth of a pistol. The verdict of the jury fully exonerates Officer Benton. The act was absolutely necessary to save the city marshal's life.

Letters in the pocket of the deceased were addressed to W. M. Cooper.

THE STATE TO BE REPRESENTED

New England Editors Will Return and Write Us Up.

Birmingham, Ala., April 6.—Col. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, came aboard our car here today and arranged on his own account for publication in the special southern editions of the newspapers composing the New England Newspaper League one full page showing the advantages and resources of North Carolina for the profitable investment of capital. He also arranged for adequate representation of Durham in this edition. At his request our party will return to North Carolina within fifteen or twenty days, and finish the work commenced in that state two weeks ago. On our return it is my purpose to visit five or six important points, to the end that the resources of North Carolina may be comprehensively set forth in the southern editions which are now under preparation. Colonel Carr has agreed to accompany the party on its tour through the state. C. F. King.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bostick, of Randleman, desire to express their appreciation to the people of Greensboro and to the Southern Railway for the numerous evidences of kindness and sympathy shown them in their recent bereavement in the illness and death of their son, who died in this city last Sunday.

Shrier's First Offerings.

We take pleasure this season in presenting for your consideration what we consider the finest assortment of Form-Fitting Shoes for men and ladies, misses and children, ever shown in Greensboro.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval.

Every new idea in quality and finish, ease and comfort, grace of style and excellence of workmanship are embodied in this season's production.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered.

The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at our earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
